W.P.No. 17241 of 2007

14-08-2007

Between:

Tanamala Srinivas Reddy

Petitioner

And

The District Collector (Land Acquisition),
Nellore district and two others.

Respondents.

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE
GODA RAGHURAM

W.P.No. 17241 of 2007

Oral Order:

The writ petition is misconceived. It is based on a mere apprehension. According to the petitioner, he apprehends that the respondents would try to acquire the land for the purpose of establishing a textile factory without specifying his name as a person interested in the acquisition notification or in other notifications of acquisition. The petitioner claims to be the owner of land in an extent of Ac.05-06 cents in survey No. 75-4, Attivaram village, Ojili mandal, Nellore district. He claims to have inherited the property from one Tanamala Rangamma, who is stated to have adopted the petitioner.

There is nothing in the pleadings, which discloses the basis of the petitioner's apprehension. The pleadings do not show that an acquisition notification has been issued whereat the name of the petitioner was not mentioned. In fact, no acquisition notification has yet been issued. There is no allegation of any overt conduct by the respondents either.

In the circumstances, the writ petition based on a mere apprehension without any factual basis cannot be entertained. There are no merits. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. As and when an acquisition notification is issued, should the petitioner have any grievance, he is at liberty to seek appropriate relief. No costs.

GODA RAGHURAM,
